

Air1 radio serves our community by giving us an option to listen to music with a positive message. Losing that option would effect many people including our youth. please don't take our only station that provides music that is not negative or sexually explcit. Thank you. R Saenz